The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly Muslims

Ali Sina

16 January 2015

Clint Eastwood is my favorite actor and I particularly love his movie 'The Good, the Bad and the Ugly'. This article, however, is not about Clint Eastwood or his movie. It is about Islam, or more accurately, the good, the bad and the ugly Muslims.

Muslims always tell us you can't paint an entire group of people with the same wide brush. Of course not everyone is the same. Although each individual is unique we can classify Muslims in three broad categories. In practice, one person can belong to two or three categories at once. The proportion of the overlap varies, and just as 18 decillion colors are created by the combination of just three and their intensity, the degree to which Muslims belong to each category gives rise to infinite diversity among them. *No Muslim exists out of these three categories.

The first category is that of good Muslims. By good Muslims I mean the true believers — those who follow the teachings of their prophet, the Quran and the Sunnah to the letter, who try to emulate him in every way and are strict and pious Muslims. Since the teachings and the examples of Muhammad are full of violence and terror, the more one follows and emulates him the more radical one becomes. Muhammad raided and butchered innocent people merely because they were not his followers. The good Muslims do the same. All the bombings and terrorisms perpetrated by Muslims are replicas of Muhammad's raids, or ghazwa, as he called them.

Taking women as sex slaves, which the Islamic State and Boko Haram practice was also practiced by Muhammad and he sanctioned it in the Quran (33:50; 23: 1-6; 70:30; 4:24; 66:1-2).

Muhammad also ordered the assassination of his critics. *So, good Muslims are actually terrorists.

The second category is of bad Muslims. These are those who don't practice their religion and are often ignorant of it. They may pray or chant the Quran, but they generally have no clue of its content. They read it for thawab (reward) without understanding it. These Muslims are ordinary people we all know. They work and try to succeed in life. Like everybody else, some are good and some are not so good. Some of them are friendly, but they see themselves as superior, by virtue of their faith, and of "higher morals."

Morality in Islam has nothing to do with what others understand by this word. For example, morality for women is to cover their hair. For men, it is not to shake hands with Muslim women, etc.

These Muslims migrate to the west to better their lives, but they segregate themselves, form isolated communities and warn their children to not learn the ways of unbelievers or take them as friends unless they intent to convert them to Islam. They give huge amounts of money to charity. But Islamic charity has nothing to do with charity. All that money goes to build mosques, print Islamic materials and promote Islam. If any of that is spent for the needy, it is to enlist them for jihad.

The bad Muslims are the lifeline of Islam and the breeding ground for good Muslims. All Muslim terrorists, unless they are converts, are born in and emerge from this group. Without the moral and financial support of the bad Muslims Islam will cease to exist.

Then we have the ugly Muslims. As we learned the good Muslims are not good at all, and the bad ones are not really that bad people, the ugly Muslims actually look beautiful.

Islam is a world down the rabbit hole. Nothing is what it is because everything is what it is not. The ugly Muslims are clean shaven, handsome or attractive, eloquent, articulate, and highly intelligent, just the kind of people you want to hang around with. They are journalists, professors, regular guests and contributors to mainstream media. They know what to say to gain your approval and your applause. Their words are reassuring and their faces are familiar. You like them and trust them.

So why do I call them ugly?

Because they lie! Their job is to deceive you and to make you believe that the “real Islam” poses no threat to you. These wolves in sheep clothing are the most dangerous group. Deception is deadlier than terror. Do you fear more a ferocious animal that you can see or a deadly virus that you can’t? The enemy within, is a lot more dangerous.

Unlike the bad Muslims the ugly ones are not ignorant of their religion. They know of Muhammad’s raids, rapes, assassinations, genocides, tortures, beheadings, but they deny them, twist the facts and defend him. They accuse the good Muslims of having hijacked their religion of peace when they know they lie. They claim to be reformers when they know that Islam cannot be reformed. Islam is what it is. To reform Islam one has to change the Quran. Over 70% of it must be scrapped, and the other 30% is just sheer nonsense.

These self-styled reformers don’t want to change the Quran. They just want Muslims to practice it less. In theory it works. Even the deadliest poison, in small doses, is not lethal. But how can they convince all Muslims to not take their holy book seriously?

This project is doomed from the start and they know it. This is either naiveté and wishful thinking, or a ruse to deceive the non-Muslims, to give them false hope so they can buy more time for Islam to take over the world, which is the goal of every Muslim, the good, the bad and the ugly.

Every Muslim falls within these three categories.

Let us take the example of CAIR [Council On American - Islamic Relations].

They are partially good Muslims and partially ugly Muslims.

And what about our beloved and darling doctors and journalists who tell us they are reforming Islam.

They are partially ugly and partially bad Muslims.

What about your good old friendly Muslim coworker?

She is a bad Muslim when she does not wear her hijab, she is a good Muslim when she observes her fast and she is an ugly Muslim when she lies to you and says Muslim terrorists have nothing to do with Islam.

Just as virtually all colors are combinations of the three primary colors, elements of the three categories of Muslims exist in all of them.

For example, all Muslims lie about their religion. This lying comes to them so naturally that they are not even aware of it.

Honest Muslims like Anjam Choudari are primarily good Muslims, but not ugly Muslims.

There you have it. I have given you a simple tool so you can break down every Muslim's mind and find its components.

Now you can call yourself Dr. Muslimologist.

Congratulations!

Stay tuned for part II of this course where I will tell you about the good, the bad and the ugly ways to stop the spread of Islam.

“ISIS Sermon: Muslims Should Kiss the Heads and Hands of Paris Attackers,” MEMRI, January 13, 2015:

Following are excerpts from a sermon delivered by Tunisian Cleric Kamal Zarouq in ISIS-controlled Al-Raqqah, Syria. The sermon was posted on the Internet on January 13, 2015:

Kamal Zarouq: All Muslims must kiss the head and hands of those who killed the journalists. All monotheists should kiss their hands. Those who condemn them are apostates, who renounced Islam and sold it out for a cheap price. Those who curse the Prophet Muhammad... As the Islamic State, it is a duty incumbent upon us to mobilize against the infidels and to avoid misdeeds and sin. It is a duty incumbent upon all our supporters who are able to bear arms to defend Islam and the Islamic nation.
